Meeting Called to Order

Meeting was called to order at 5:30 PM by Mrs. Melikova (EL Coordinator), while families had dinner and waited for other members to join. The ELAC secretary confirmed attendance but was not able to attend because of a personal circumstance

Welcome and Introduction

Attendees were welcomed, school staff and ELAC officers were introduced. It was established that an interpreter was not for the event.

Mrs. Melikova reviewed the agenda

New school updates were covered, including State Testing information, upcoming school Pathways trips, SGI classes, reclassification information, available Saturday School opportunities, and upcoming Parent Teacher Conferences.

Title 1/LCAP Updates

Title 1 updates were covered since the last meeting.

Updates in the LCAP report were covered, pertaining to the school's 4 goals.

Celebration of EL families

As part of the fourth and final meeting of the school year, a small celebration was held where ELL families were recognized. Also, reclassified students this year were reclassified, even though those families were not able to attend despite having been invited.

Adjournment

The family members present were given the parent feedback forms to fill out, asking families to include recommended actions to support regular school attendance.

The ELAC meeting was adjourned at 6:00PM.
